

Anne Boleyn Myths Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

- 4 This popular historian writes of Henry VIII believing that Anne Boleyn was corrupted at the French court.
- 6 This Catholic recusant was responsible for the idea that Anne had a wen and an extra finger.
- 9 Anne Boleyn's remains, both head and body, were buried at this chapel.
- 10 This was not listed in the charges against Anne, but is often mistakenly added in articles, blogs etc.
- 11 This novelist had Anne Boleyn miscarrying a deformed foetus in her book "The Other Boleyn Girl".
- 12 Which woman is often blamed for giving evidence of Anne and George's incest, although there's no evidence she did.
- 13 Norah Lofts believed that Anne Boleyn's ghost appeared as this animal to a sexton in the Norfolk Church where legend states she was moved to.

DOWN

- 1 It is often claimed that Anne changed the family name from..... to Boleyn to make it more sophisticated.
- 2 This Victorian historian stated that Anne Boleyn's mother had died in 1512 and Thomas Boleyn remarried.
- 3 When she was imprisoned in the Tower of London, Anne was recorded as saying that there'd be no rain in England for, years.
- 5 Norah Lofts wrote of Anne having a mole known as this.
- 7 This chivalric tradition was practised at Henry VIII's court and involved knights wooing women who were often unobtainable, such as Queen Anne.
- 8 A misreading of a document has led to the idea that Anne had a greyhound named this.
- 9 To a church in which Norfolk village does legend say that Anne was moved.

Anne Boleyn Myths Crossword Puzzle

